Graduation

We must not forget our boys and girls, our young men and women, the ones who are fitting themselves for the battle of life.

A gift at this time for commencement or graduation will be long remembered.

For the young man, a watch is always acceptable. We have suitable and reliable watches as low as $5.00, others for $8.00, $10.00, $15.00 or $20.00. We have similar priced watches suitable for the girl graduate. Or if you would prefer something else, for instance, a brooch, a ring, locket, necklace, or other article of jewelry we can suit you, both as to quality and price.

We cordially invite you to inspect our stock.

COURT BEGINS TODAY IN MCKINLEY COUNTY

The offices of Judge Isa A. Abbott and Clerk Thomas K. D. Madison in the McKinley county courthouse were a deserted air today, for their occupants had packed their belongings and temporarily sought green fields and pastures new. The opening of McKinley county court is failing this morning was responsible for the exodus of court officials from Albuquerque. That court will be in session at least all of next week, according to present indications, as there are a number of important cases pending in McKinley county which will take up a large share of the court's attention, besides the usual routine of court work.

No less interesting were the knapsacks cut from the uniforms of some federal soldiers. One of these is from a cavalry soldier and the other from the infantry uniform.

Altogether it is a most gruesome collection and cannot fail to impress with the horrors of war. Burned and bloodstained, they are silent evidences of the terrible fight that took place on the streets of Juarez.

Mr. Houston will be glad to show these relics to anyone who is interested at the Aerodrome.

Mr. Mandell sees

BRIGHT PROSPECTS AHEAD

The Clivus Journal publishes the following interview with the prominent Albuquerque citizen:

"Mr. Mandell of Albuquerque, who, with Armonia Mandell, his nephew, maintains a store at this place, was in the city for several days this week, looking after his business interests, meeting with the 'boys' and has many friends."

"I never saw brighter prospects for a big fruit crop than we have in the Rio Grande valley this year," said Mr. Mandell in speaking of the condition all up and down the valley in the trade territory of the Duke City.

"Mr. Mandell also says that the river has plenty and to spare water this year, so that crops in the valley are not going to suffer for want of water. I am pleased with our business here in Clivus in general," said Mr. Mandell in talking with a Journal man.

Mr. Mandell is a member of the
